THE BLUE GRASS LEAGUE MAY BE RE-ORGANIZED IN 1921

Movement Is Started In Kentucky To Re-Organize Baseball League—Maysville Asked To Conference.

Mayor T. M. Russell, former president of the Blue Grass Baseball League and one of Kentucky's most enthusiastic fans, has been asked to join in a movement to re-organize the old league for 1921.

He has just received this letter from Major John A. Spinney, Cincinnati, baseball enthusiast:

"Dear Sir:—I am taking the liberty of writing you in regard to getting back into professional baseball for 1921, and hope you will give the matter careful consideration.

"The managers of Nicholasville and Winchester, Ky., requested that I use my best efforts in trying to reorganize the Blue Grass league for next season, and after getting the opinion of Mr. Hogan Yancey, of Lexington, I decided to take the matter up.

"Last week I made a trip to Winchester, and had a talk with Mr. Moss of the Brown-Proctor Hotel, and was surprised to learn from him that he had already taken the proposition of organizing the Blue Grass league up and would get in touch with the moving spirits in baseball at Richmond, Paris, Lexington, Cynthiana, Frankfort and Maysville.

"Mr. Moss believes that a meeting should be called at the Hotel Gibson Cincinnati some time in November, so as to give the different towns ample time to organize their stock companies and also to get suitable grounds.

Mr. Hogan Yancey informed me that Lexington never looked so bright as it does at the present time for professional ball, and would get busy at once with the street car company in securing their help in regards ball grounds and grand stands.

"Mr. Lineham, of Cynthiana, already has a good club lined up and Mr. Fleber, of Nicholasville, is getting the best financial backing of the town, and while we have not heard from Mr. Kellogg, of Richmond, we are assured by Mr. Moss, of Winchester, that Richmond will be there when the meeting is called to order in this city.

"I would like to hear from you in regard to the above as soon as possible as I am to make all arrangements for the meeting in November."

MUSICAL COMEDY IS TO HOLD BOARDS TONIGHT

"The Rainbow Girl" Will Be The Attraction at Washington Theater This Evening.

If theatergoers will count the chorus and appraise the cast of Gleason and Block's radiant musical comedy "The Rainbow Girl," which comes to Washington Theater tonight they will find both above the standard. The appearance here of the joyous "The Rainbow Girl," promises to prove the most interesting and profitable in the history of the present theatrical season so far unfolded.

Theatergoers who prefer the lighter form of stage entertainment will be interested in the fact that this attraction comes here with very strong endorsements. It is, according to New York, Boston and Chicago reviewers, an extraordinary artistic, interesting and tuneful production. The book and lyrics written by Renold Wolf, are genuinely funny and far above the usual musical comedy values, while the music by the prolific Lou's A. Hirsch, is warm, colorful and melodic. With commendable good judgment, Messrs. Gleason and Block have elected to equip their entertainment with a cast of notably gifted players. Sam Sldman, for years, one of the stages' leading musical comedy comedians heads the cast. Katherine Shaw a beautiful woman, with a voice of great purity and range will sing the prima donna role; George Lydecker, long a musical comedy favorite; and well known throughout the land sings the role of Lord Wetherell; Frank Farrington, a popular actor of many notable Broadway successes has scored tremendously in the part of Martin Bennett, the butler.

BOOSTERS' TRIP IS PROPOSED TO ADVERTISE FAIR

Merchants of Maysville May Take An Automobile Trip Through District Boosting Our Big Corn and Tobacco Fair.

It became known today that a movement has just been started to advertise the Maysville Corn and Tobacco Fair in a big motor trip throughout this and all adjoining counties both in Kentucky and Ohio. It is proposed to take several automobiles loaded with Maysville and Mason county merchants and a part of the Maysville Boys' Band for several trips.

The proposition is to carry advertising matter of the fair along on the trip and also to have several speakers to address the people in the various communities where stops will be made.

The trip will be much on the order of the trip of Lexington merchants to Maysville and to those to whom the proposition has been presented, it has met with instant favor. Such a trip to Ripley, Manchester and West Union in Ohio, and the several county seat towns in Kentucky within easy reach of Maysville should not only create interest in the big fair but also create a more cordial relation between the business men of this city and the business men of close county seats. The proposition is not to advertise Maysville merchants but to advertise the Corn and Tobacco Fair and to create a more cordial relationship between Maysville and the other towns.

The movement has the endorsement of the advertising committee of the fair and many local merchants.

CIVIL SERVICE "EXPERTS"

The Augusta Chronicle says: "It must be a great sensation to be in the 'snivel service' of the postoffice department and to be allowed to use a long-suffering public as one sees fit. For instance, the Chronicle had two boxes of machine-set type come from Maysville Tuesday night on No. 7, and notwithstanding the fact that Arch Claypole, the mail barrier, was right there to receive the package this intelligent (?) 'snivel service' employee threw both boxes to the ground, completely wrecking one, together with its contents. The mail clerk had no excuse to offer than that this was his first offense, and when he was told that he would be reported, another fat-head emerged from his hiding place in the car and claimed that he would have to pass on the report and that it would not go any higher. Judging from the looks and actions of the three jackasses in the mail car on No. 7 Tuesday night, we think they missed their calling—they should be following a mule in the corn field, or be furnished with tin bills and permitted to earn their living with the chickens."

TENTH BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED.

"PHRASES" Vs. "PERFORMANCE," SAYS HARDING

Republican Nominee Praises Protection As Example of Republican Accomplishment.

Jackson, O., Oct. 21.—Democrat "phrase-making" and Republic "performance" were contrasted by Senator Harding in a speech here Wednesday, praising the protective tariff policy as an example of Republican accomplishment.

"The truth is," he said, "that with all the progressive tongues and all the literary idealism of our opponents, it is still the Republican party not only as to tariff protection, but as to every other kind of protection which stands as the safeguard of America. It is a simple matter to make phrases, it is much more difficult to perform, but it is on their respective records as phrase-makers and as performers that the Democratic forces of this campaign and the Republican party oppose each other.

The Republican nominee, making an afternoon speech at a political barbecue, gave particular attention to the iron and steel industry as it has developed in this section of Ohio. This industry throughout the country, he said, had given an illustration of "the success which attends the combination of the hands and brains of workers whose interests are so bound together in a common cause that upon the part of all there will be profound realization of the need for mutual consideration.

SLIP IN PIKE SHOULD BE GUARDED.

A great slip in the Lexington pike at the top of the Maysville hill is very dangerous to motorists at all times but more especially after night. Last night a stranger driving a very large car narrowly escaped a serious accident at this slip. The road department should repair this dangerous place as soon as possible and there should be red light hung there each night as a warning to strangers traveling the pike who know nothing of the big slip until they are very close to it.

PROHIBITION DEFEATED IN WEST CANADA

Liquor Will Be Sold in British Columbia Only in Sealed Packages In Stores.

Vancouver, B. C., October 21.—Repeal of the British Columbian prohibition law by the 15,000 majority against it in yesterday's plebiscite, brought government officials today to consideration of how the liquor traffic shall be considered. The vote was on the preference between prohibition and "an act to provide for government control and sale in sealed packages of spirituous and malted liquors." Officials here believed today that the vote would result in a generous policy in the dispensation of liquor, not in open saloons, but in government stores. Under the prohibition act, only eight ounces could be purchased, even with a physician's certificate.

Charges His Business Associate Had Broken Up His Home—Calmly Surrenders Self After Deed.

When Howard Phillips, Ninth and Monmouth streets, Newport (Ky.) bakery owner, stepped from the house at 790 East Tenth street, Newport, Wednesday night with Mrs. Maude Campbell Murray, who lives there, he was shot and killed by J. B. Murray, Evansville, Ind., his former partner in the baking business and husband of Mrs. Murray. Murray fired six shots and all took effect. As Mrs. Murray ran screaming from the street back into the house, Murray calmly re-entered the taxicab that had borne him to the neighborhood and rode to the Newport police station, where he laid his revolver upon the desk of Lieut. John Kalfat, "There it is," he said. "I just shot a man. He broke up my home."

Without further comment except a request that he be permitted to communicate with his attorney, A. E. Stricklett, of Covington, Murray was sent to a cell.

Mr. Berry Bedford, of Lexington, is visiting the family of Deputy Sheriff Frank Armstrong, of Forest avenue.

FRANKLIN D. FALLS INTO PIT OF HIS MUDDY DIPLOMACY

The recent excursion of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic vice presidential nominee, into the realm of diplomacy, when he declared that the United States would control "about twelve" votes in the League of Nations, appears to have ended up disastrously.

According to dispatches from Washington, the indignation of a number of foreign diplomats over the Roosevelt statement concerning the League has at last emerged from diplomatic silence to open protest. In his speech at Butte, Mont., Mr. Roosevelt made the blunt statement that although England would have six votes in the League of Nations, the United States would actually control a dozen votes in the League, including those of Cuba and Panama and a group of the lesser West Indian and Central American republics. He even stated that two of these votes had lately reposed in "his own vest pocket," and that they were now to be found about the person of Secretary Daniels.

DEMOCRATS BALK AGAINST COX IN HOME STATE

Under the name of the "True Democracy League of Ohio," a powerful section of the Democratic party in Ohio has entered the campaign to oppose the election of Governor Cox to the presidency, and has opened headquarters in the Neil House at Columbus, Ohio.

Though the League has just determined to help elect Senator Harding to save the country from Cox, it is six years old, and very early in its career it cast 65,000 votes against Cox and his personal ambitions. It promises to wield a mighty influence this fall.

SALT RIVER AGAIN.

Senator Beckham is making a campaign for re-election just about as half-hearted as his record in Congress has been. Evidently Beckham and his backers, if he has any in his own party, are eager enough for another sleeping term in the Senate, but they seem to know that Salt River is about their best bet in this campaign.

T. R., JR., FINDS NO DEMOCRATIC "PEP"

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., who has been on a speaking tour throughout Kentucky in behalf of the Harding-Coolidge ticket, has found that there are only two prominent Democrats whose names bring forth genuine applause from the mixed audiences which he is addressing over the country. These are Senator Reed, of Missouri, and Senator Gore, of Oklahoma, two of the outstanding opponents of the Wilson League of Nations.

Mention of President Wilson has almost invariably been met with silence and indifference by Colonel Roosevelt's audiences. The names of Baker, Daniels and Burleson have brought forth shouts of derision, or else—particularly with regard to Burleson—hilarious laughter.

But it has been different with regard to Reed and Gore. Colonel Roosevelt told a Missouri audience that Senator Reed was "a real fellow," and his judgment was upheld by hearty applause from Republicans and Democrats alike. In Oklahoma he told several of his audiences that Senator Gore, who was recently defeated for renomination at the direct request of the White House, was a typical victim of the Wilson imperialism, and his statement invariably brought forth a storm of applause.

How's This One?

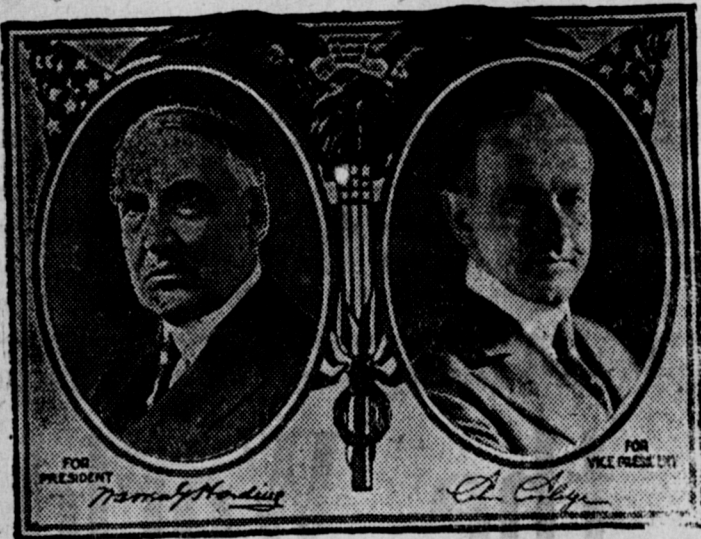

Louisville.—Speaking at a Republican rally in Louisville several days ago, W. W. Watts, prominent lawyer and student of the League of Nations covenant, told the following humorous story in bringing home a forceful point in his argument against the League: "The garbled language of the League covenant, such as in the obnoxious Article 10, shows that even plain words may sometimes mean one thing to one person but something else to another. I am reminded that a client the other day, wanting to settle for a fee, asked me to name it in a certain matter I had handled for him. Thinking of the high cost of living, and that I had not looked a chicken in the face for ever so long, I told him my fee was a mere bagatelle of a million dollars. That sum being no longer of importance, he counted out the million. I put it in my pocket and immediately repaired to a restaurant for my chicken. The cashier was a beautiful girl of eighteen—some thirty years ago—and still continued her single blessedness. As I passed I said to her, 'How is the chicken today?' Now, I thought that was plain language, you would have thought so, exerybody would have thought so. And do you know that, with as sweet a smile as I might hope to see, she replied: 'Oh, I'm all right, kiddo; how are you?'"

COX'S HOME COUNTY TO GO FOR HARDING

Declaration that Montgomery County (Ohio), Governor Cox's home county, will go for Harding by from 4,000 to 5,000 next month, was made by Daniel C. Brower, chairman of the Republican Committee of Dayton and Montgomery counties. Mr. Brower claims Ohio will give Harding 100,000 majority this year. His prediction is based upon the presumption that the national issues will reverse the vote in the last gubernatorial campaign.

HOOVER THE AMERICAN.

Herbert Hoover, whose Red Cross activity and general service to his country during the recent great war has made him one of America's foremost men, has written a scathing indictment of the Democratic party.

"Since the armistice," says Mr. Hoover, "The administration has made a failure by all the tests we can apply. It obstinately held up the peace of the world for eighteen months, with fearful cost to ourselves and the world.

"It has woefully neglected and failed upon great reconstruction and administration measures.

"There are great domestic issues, delayed by or accumulating out of the war, that have been insistently demanding solution ever since the armistice.

"It was the business of the Democratic party to have assembled the best brains in the United States before each of those problems; to have prevented the advanced cost of living; to have found solution for the difficulties of our agricultural industry; to have inaugurated constructive methods of resettlement of the land development of our industrial employment relations; the protection of child life, the solution of our deficient housing, the reorganization of the business administration of the federal government and a host of other domestic problems.

"Nearly two years have passed since the armistice. None of these things have been accomplished. We have only promises.

"The responsibilities of government should be transferred. I therefore wholeheartedly support the Republican candidates."

IN THE DAY'S NEWS.

The Anti-Saloon League of America, which probably did more than any other one organization to create the public sentiment which resulted in adoption of the Federal prohibition amendment, owes its widespread influence largely to Howard H. Russell, who celebrates his sixty-fifth birthday today. For more than a quarter of a century Dr. Russell has been a leading spirit in the affairs of the league, beginning in 1892, when he first organized it in the state of Ohio. For eight years he was the general superintendent of the national organization and during that time he started the league in 31 states, traveling annually more than 50,000 miles. Dr. Russell is a native of Minnesota and in his earlier career he practiced law for a time, was a county school superintendent in Iowa, and later was ordained to the Congregational ministry.

The Weak or the Strong One

If you see before you a strong and safe bridge leading to your goal, would you ignore it and choose some insecure and tottering structure?

If you were offered sure aid in time of trouble would you hesitate to accept it?

The answer is simple—you would choose what all evidence showed to be the safe way—and you would risk nothing in useless experiments.

Why then do some women risk one of their most precious possessions—their health—in trying medicines of unknown value, when everybody knows that the most successful remedy for woman's ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is more proof:

Reading, Pa.—"I had organic inflammation, pains in the side and back which were so sharp that they pulled me to my knees, and I could not walk. I had an operation and still I failed, and in the eight years I suffered I had four doctors and none helped me. My mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was then in bed, and after the first bottle I could get out of bed, then I took Vegetable Compound Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and also used the Sanative Wash. I still take the medicine and am able now to do my own housework. My friends say, 'Aly! but you look well—what do you do?' Who is your doctor?' and there is only one answer, Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine."—Mrs. Wm. Stern, 630 Douglas Street, Reading, Pa.

COPPER INTO GOLD

One striking instance of how the public treasury was tapped of its golden hoard by the Administration to buy things that were not needed was cited by Senator Watson of Indiana, in a recent speech. To brand some 391,000 horses and mules, 195,000 branding irons were ordered, he said.

"The contractor," he went on, "agreed that these irons should be made of copper, which was very scarce. He purchased 79,000 pounds of copper, 20,000 more than he needed to make the branding irons.

"Officials of the company testified that they paid 39 1/2 cents a pound for the copper. The War Department paid the company 39 1/2 cents a pound for all the copper, including 20,000 pounds that the government did not need, and immediately turned around and sold it back to the company for 11 cents a pound when the armistice intervened.

"And, as climax to it all, the company filed a claim for profits that it would have received if it had filled the contract and the government allowed $40,000, which was paid out of the Treasury, and, somehow or other, we managed to worry along and win the war without branding a single animal."

HOW THE DEMOCRATS DO IT IN WASHINGTON

November 12, 1918.—Clerk Well, I suppose I lose my job now? Fire when you're ready, Chief!

Chief: The war department wants a list of conscientious objectors by States!

April 13, 1919.—Clerk: The list is completed, Chief. Now fire.

Chief: Did I say by States? I meant by age!

August 1.—Clerk: Here is the list of "conchies" by age. Shall I resign now?

Chief: When does the lease on your flat expire? * * * October 1!

That list must be done by nationality, I find. The secretary wants it.

September 28.—Clerk: The list by nationality is done, Chief. And my lease expires October 1.

Chief: That's it.—Tabulate them according to whether they're Republicans or Democrats, see? Prohibitionists don't count. Many of them can't.

April 1, 1920.—Chief (Just returned from a South American tour of investigation into the bean situation in Lima, and stopping to look into the ginger situation in Jamaica): What have you been up to, Goodbody?

Clerk: I've listed them by lodges, and by favorite flavorings for ice cream sundaes; by favorite colors for spats; by preference for pajama patterns; by favorite mustache wax—why, sir there isn't a conscientious objector—

Chief: Good heavens, you don't mean to tell me that it's the conscientious objectors you've been listing—* * * Why, you'll have to do it all over again. I meant unconscious objectors!—Cartoons Magazine.

COX FINDS HE CAN'T FOOL THE FARMERS

It is difficult to say whether one should admire the sheer nerve of Governor Cox, or wonder at the brazen tendencies his campaign is developing. He calmly faces an audience of farmers and says:

"The farmer is entitled to a large representation in government; and public service, in my judgment—and if I did not believe this I would not say it—will have its efficiency advanced by a large representation of agricultural thought."

Yet there isn't a farmer in Ohio who doesn't know that in 1913 it was Governor Cox who deprived the farmer of all participation in farm matters, which was turned over to a high-salaried political commission controlled by Governor Cox. The Republican administration of Governor Willis later handed back control of their affairs to the farmers.

COX LIKES SALESMEN (?)

All traveling salesmen will be interested to know what the two candidates for President think of them:

Governor Cox said in an editorial in his paper, the Dayton News: "The art of salesmanship is a good deal of a nuisance to the public."

Senator Harding said: "It (the great body of traveling salesmen) is one of the most useful armies we have, whether in peace or war."

THE PROPER COURSE

Information of Priceless Value to Every Maysville Citizen.

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with kidney backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement should add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a Maysville citizen who used them and who publicly tells of the benefit derived?

Ben P. Fleming, constable of Mason Co., 217 E. Lee St., Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years, getting them at Wood & Son's Drug Store, and they have been of great benefit. At times my kidneys have been out of order and I have suffered from a dull, constant ache through the small of my back. The kidney secretions have been irregular in passage, too. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills has never failed to relieve me of the complaint in a short time."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Fleming had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., N. Y.

MAKING HOME BAKING EASY

A Book That Makes This Art of the Olden Days a Modern-day Delight.

From all parts of the country come reports of a great increase in home baking. In fact, it has again become the fashion, as it was in grandmother's day, for women to take pride in telling about the good things they bake at home.

To encourage this great economy, and to make it easy for the beginner, as well as to give the experienced home bakers the benefit of the most modern discoveries, the Royal Baking Powder Company has published a most unique book which, in itself, is almost a course in the art of cookery.

Turning the pages there is included a wealth of information most unusual in baking and cookery. Old and famous recipes have been improved and simplified, and on nearly every page there is something entirely new to serve as a surprise. Economy and ease of preparation are the keynotes on the book.

Indeed there is so much of value in this contribution to good living that one wonders how it was all worked out. We find in the introduction that it is the result of three years of constant research and experimenting by the Royal Educational Department, which is conducted for the benefit of all housewives interested in the health, economy and betterment of the home table.

COX REGARDED DOOMED BY BACKERS, SAYS HAYS

Republican National Chairman Says
Democrats Are Trading Cox
To Save Their Senators.

New York, Oct. 21. — Will H. Hays, Republican National Chairman, Wednesday said that in many normally Democratic states, Democrats had given up hope of electing Cox and Roosevelt and are now busy "trading" Candidate Cox to try to save their Senators.

Mr. Hays arrived here today from Chicago, bringing with him the prediction that every state west of the Mississippi would show a Harding majority with the possible exception of Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana.

Of states south of the Mason-Dixon line, Mr. Hays said in a formal statement, the Republican ticket would carry Maryland, Tennessee, Kentucky, West Virginia, and possibly North Carolina. The "Solid South," with these exceptions, and the three Western States were all in which Mr. Hays would concede that Democratic chances seemed better than Republican.

He said there was no doubt of sweeping Republican victories in Illinois and Indiana, declaring that his prediction was made on as conservative a basis as was his estimate that the Republican majority in the recent Maine election would be "at least 30,000."

Attachments to Telephones— And Why We Object to Them

The rules of the telephone company prohibit the use of special devices attached to the telephone or "cut in" on the telephone line.

The general use of such attachments—as, for instance, special mouthpieces, hook-switch locks, patent ear-pieces, receiver holders, special switches and other appliances—would so complicate the upkeep and operation of the telephones in the exchange that uniform and satisfactory service would be impossible.

In the interest of uniform and dependable service for all alike, therefore, we must adopt the policy of ourselves specifying and providing all equipment used on or connected with our lines. We cannot be responsible for the upkeep or operation of telephones or lines to which outside devices, not standard equipment, are attached.
